Fuelling Productivity

AkiliAfrica has been providing hundreds of satisfied clients with business solutions since the early nineties. To date, we have over 300 sites in Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, Ethiopia, Eritrea, Rwanda, and Sudan running successful business solutions implemented by the AkiliAfrica team. AkiliAfrica has permanent offices in Kenya and Uganda; from these offices we run projects throughout this region.

AkiliAfrica is a multiple winner of the Microsoft Dynamics West, East, and Central Africa Partner of the Year Award.

AkiliAfrica's aim is straightforward – to amplify the impact of your people and fuel personal productivity! That's what we do – linking business requirements to software functions to create efficiency, enabling your people to focus on the tasks that add value to your business day to day. Because businesses don't garner insights or make decisions. Businesses don't close deals, invent new products, or find new efficiencies. People do! Companies excel when they empower their people to drive the business forward. Improving business productivity levels is in AkiliAfrica's DNA.

Microsoft Dynamics NAV is designed to meet a diverse range of business requirements; from the retailer through to a manufacturer and everyone in between. Microsoft Dynamics NAV 2009 offers a breakthrough innovative user experience and technology innovations that provide simplified, Role Tailored access to relevant information, improve organisational agility, streamline integration with a wide range of applications, and enhance reporting and collaboration.

AkiliAfrica and Microsoft Dynamics NAV offer you the opportunity to use IT to save you money and at the same time strengthen and grow your business.

Why AkiliAfrica?

We are recognized by Microsoft as their leading partner in Africa – we are a multiple winner of the Microsoft Dynamics West, East & Central Africa Microsoft Business Solutions Partner of the Year Award. The award aims to recognise Microsoft Partners who have made outstanding contributions to customers through the effective use of technology, as well as their contribution to building a sustainable local IT industry.

AkiliAfrica is a member of the Microsoft Business Solutions President's Club 2006 and 2007. The Microsoft President's Club is Microsoft's annual recognition program for Microsoft partners worldwide who achieve exceptional fiscal sales and customer additions by providing superior business solutions to customers. The President's Club Program is designed to recognize the top 5% of Microsoft partners worldwide and helps drive year over year growth while also recognizing Microsoft partners with the highest overall customer service. Members achieve and maintain the highest level of Microsoft competency.

We are able to guarantee local presence and support, quality, reliability, continuity, and commitment.

We have the broadest implementation experience – from single site/single user systems to integrated systems with hundreds of users operating across several countries.

Our real world project experience and expertise means we consistently deliver solutions on time and within budget. No other Microsoft partner comes close to matching our record of success.

Our satisfied clients include listed companies, governments, leading manufacturing and industrial sector clients, donor agencies, NGO's, and consulting firms.
